ANTONIO SERRANO & CONSTANZA LECHNER "Harmonica & Piano Concert"

Antonio Serrano, one of the world's best harmonica players, releases and plays live, together with Constanza Lechner, his new work "Clasicos Españoles y Argentinos". A concert where they perform songs by Falla, Granados, Sarasate, Guastavino, and Piazzolla.

Serrano, already widely recognized among Spanish musicians, received international recognition when in 2004 he became part of Paco de Lucía's core band, a collaboration that lasted until the death of the guitar master in 2014.

Constanza Lechner play with various symphonic orchestras and has toured in France, Greece, Jordan, Switzerland, USA, Canada (Montreal Jazz Festival), Turkey, Cyprus, Bahrein, Oman and Germany. She has also collaborated with the Company "Iberica de Danza" and is oftenly required as a pianist by the National Ballet of Spain.
