

PRESENTATION OF ABEL PAÚL at GAUDEAMUS MUZIEKWEEK 2014.

The Spanish composer Abel Paúl received an Honorary Mention at the Gaudeamus Muziekweek 2013 and thus was invited again to the next festival to present a new composition. He wrote "A life at the radio's treshold" which was performed by the Ensemble Insomnio with conductor Ulrich Pöhl, on Sunday 14 September 2014 at the final concert of the festival.

Abel Paúl came to Utrecht to attend the rehearsals with the ensemble and to attend several of the festival's concerts and other activities such as composers' meetings. The performance took place in the "Cloud Nine" venue of the new concert house TivoliVredenburg in Utrecht. It was very well attended by an enthusiastic international audience of 175 persons.

The performance of Abel Paúl's composition is recorded by De Concertzender, which will broadcast it later during this season via the special Gaudeamus Channel at <http://www.concertzender.nl>

