

Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Cultural business models on the Internet | 11 |
| Challenges of the twenty-first century. | |
| How to adapt a company to the twenty-first century | |
| Rodolfo Carpintier | 13 |
| How to encourage entrepreneurship in the culture sector | |
| Joana Sánchez | 27 |
| Inbound for the cultural world | |
| Marta Rodríguez | 49 |
| The digital competencies of organisations: the challenge of digitally transforming talent | |
| Jesús Alcoba González | 75 |
| How to apply Design Thinking (DT) and Lean Startup (LS) to finding new business opportunities for the culture industries of the twenty-first century | |
| Juan Gasca Rubio & José Manuel Jarque | 91 |
| Using data to create value in the arts and cultural sector | |
| Juan Mateos-García | 113 |
| The transgressive power of sharing | |
| Grace Quintanilla | 131 |
| The challenge of the digital transformation of the culture industries | |
| Pepe Cerezo | 145 |
| Impact of technologies on the cultural landscape | |
| Hugh Forrest | 161 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| The Guardian Culture Professionals Network: a case study in professional community publishing | |
| Matthew Caines | 167 |
| The digital age is transforming storytelling | |
| Marco Ferrario | 183 |
| Practice not theory: a new art museum in the digital age | |
| Rich Cherry | 201 |

Focus 2015. Museums and New Technologies 211

| | |
|---|-----|
| 1. Introduction | 213 |
| 2. Web technology | 215 |
| 2.1. Websites | 215 |
| 2.2. Social networks and blogs | 220 |
| 2.3. Digitisation of content | 228 |
| 3. Technology associated with the actual visit | 233 |
| 3.1 Screens | 234 |
| 3.2 QR codes | 242 |
| 3.3. Geolocation | 245 |
| 3.4 Beacons | 247 |
| 3.5 Sensors and facial recognition | 251 |
| 3.6 Wearables | 255 |
| 3.7. 3D and augmented reality (AR) technologies | 259 |
| 4. Labs | 275 |
| 5. Crowdfunding, crowdsourcing and crowdcurating | 284 |
| 5.1.Crowdfunding | 285 |
| 5.2. Crowdcurating | 289 |
| 5.3. Crowdsourcing | 292 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 6. Artificial intelligence and robots | 297 |
| 7. Conclusions of the study | 300 |
| 8. References / Bibliography | 302 |
| 8.1. Introduction | 302 |
| 8.2. Web technologies | 303 |
| 8.3. Technologies associated with the actual visit | 306 |
| 8.4. Labs | 308 |
| 8.5. Crowdfunding, crowdsourcing and crowdcurating | 309 |
| 8.6. Artificial intelligence and robots | 310 |
| Notes | 311 |
| Credits | 322 |