SAFETY ON THE ISLAND

Cockatoo Island is a former industrial site. Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. Visitors are requested to wear appropriate enclosed footwear and comply with all signage on the island.

We ask that you mind your step and beware of hazards. Please do not walk backwards - there are occasional uneven surfaces, voids, trip hazards and cliffs. Please do not stray beyond any barriers that are in place.

A number of buildings are darkened and require extra vigilance. Pay attention to art work warning signs. These have been prepared to warn you and ensure your safety on the island.

Please take care at all times. There is no smoking permitted in buildings, and animals are not allowed on the island.
